St Paul's Province Weekly Newsletter: 3

17 October 2016

Our birthday girls this week are:

Lelia Baker - 18 October

Melanie Maguire - 23 October

Eily May White - 23 October

Mgr Kieran Heskin, our Parish Priest, blessed the new lift in Elmleigh on Friday 7th October. This has taken about 6 months to complete, so there were smiles all round when it was finished.

Celebrating 50 years of Leeds Trinity University on Terrace Pavillion at the House of Commons, followed by a very fitting Mass celebrated by Bishop John Wilson at Westminster Cathedral. Sue represents the Sisters on the Board of Governors.

Anne Hammersley, with Moya O'Cleary and Sue Rix.

Our Sisters in Lytham are fortunate in enjoying occasional excursions and this month the nursing staff had the brilliant idea of taking two groups to see the Blackpool Illuminations. The first group set forth Thurs 6th October, with Sr Agnes Marie in a wheelchair, 3 other sisters and 2 nurses, plus Jeannette, the housekeeper. They soon arrived at 3 fish & chip shops, where fish & chips were enjoyed by all. Serena drove to the N Promenade where the lights began. They were exquisitely beautiful. A happy group returned to Lytham to tell the next group what lovely sights they had seen. The second group will go in the next week or so.

Sr Dominic Savio

Congratulations also go to the Community in Lytham for raising £450 at a MacMillan Coffee Morning. Well done!

St Gemma's Hospice

... has been awarded the top rating of outstanding following a recent, unannounced inspection by the Care Quality Commission.

Our warmest congratulations go to all who are continuing the wonderful ministry of love and compassion at St Gemma's.

Carmel and Thérèse enjoyed sharing with the staff at a celebration tea preceding the award ceremony.
